MISSOULA--

The first in a series of 30-minute documentary programs on the history of Missoula County will be aired on KGVO-TV, Missoula, at 10 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 21.

The programs are funded under a $5,600 grant to the Missoula County Commissioners from the Montana Committee for the Humanities, an organization headquartered at the University of Montana.

On Sunday's program, the earliest history of the area is traced. Pictures and historical material are provided in part by the University.

The series, entitled "Missoula County: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow," coincides with the 115th anniversary of Missoula County, the first established county in the state of Montana. Larry Cooper, KGVO-TV news director, will host the programs.
